ABOUT STANIEL CAY

Staniel Cay is truly like no other place on earth. The island is nestled in the magnificent chain of Bahamian Out Islands called The Exuma Cays (a.k.a. "Exumas") and lies approximately 75 miles southeast of Nassau and 250 miles southeast of Florida.

The island itself is less than two square miles in area and with a population of less than eighty full-time residents, Staniel Cay is the ideal place to escape from the cares of the world. The Yacht Club has been entertaining guests since 1956 and introducing them to the unspoiled beauty of secluded beaches, bright blue waters, and friendly people. You will not find more inspiring land and waterscapes anywhere in the world. The breathtaking landscape of Staniel Cay is the perfect island setting to be inspired and to create. The naturally contrasting colors of the dark coral shoreline and aqua waters partnered with the laid back culture of the islands is a wonderful escape. (continued on back)

PRINTMAKING WORKSHOP IN THE EXUMAS

FROM MONOTYPE TO COLLAGE (AND BACK?), FEBRUARY 2018

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP: FROM MONOTYPE TO COLLAGE (AND BACK?)

We start by reviewing the basics of monotype while encouraging participants to create at their own pace. Using non-toxic, soy based etching inks, we'll explore mark-making, placing emphasis on texture and pattern. Participants will start by printing monotypes and then transform the textures inherent in the painterly process of monotype to create unique compositions in collage with use of the printing press. Color and pattern will steer the composition resulting in a variety of finished works on paper of different sizes and shapes. Adhesives and Asian papers will be included in the discussion and fee. This class is ideal for someone wishing to further explore monotype or transform their way of working. It's a very loose, interpretive style. No printmaking experience is necessary. All you need is a desire to create, and we'll do our best to make this workshop an experience you'll cherish. Limited class size of only seven participants allows for one-on-one instruction. You will create a small portfolio of works on paper, culminating in an exhibition and opening reception at the Staniel Cay Yacht Club. Our studio will be at Point Breeze, a long time resident and local artist's private, waterfront home. We're pleased to offer this class with decades of travel and printmaking experience; this is truly a unique opportunity.
